

RT. REV. HANDEL G. WILLIAMS, BISHOP, D.D, MSC.D, N.D, O.D, M.H.

Born in the island-nation of Antigua-Barbuda, West Indies. He received his early education in that country, attending the Antigua Grammar School

In 1968, he was called to the Gospel Ministry of Our Lord Jesus Christ and in 1970 was ordained and consecrated a Bishop. In 1971, he organized the Temple of St. Paul Divine Apostolic Faith in Jesus Christ our Lord, Inc.

His civic activities included serving as Vice President of Area IV, New York City Anti-Poverty Organization of Brooklyn. In the foreign mission field, in Guyana, South America, as member of the Episcopal, Mystic and Apostolic Association. In the Republic of Ghana, West Africa, association with various Churches and in assisting an environmental company, namely, Ashanti Environmental Services of Ghana and being its President and CEO.

He is a Civil Engineer and Environmental Professional. Also, licensed in the State of New Jersey, as Construction Official and Fire Official.

Presently, he still pursued work in the engineering and environmental fields. Having organized a company, namely, Atlantis Environmental Services that is involved in solar energy and waste management. As to his religious activities, he is in the mission field assisting Churches.

his greatest desire is to complete the mission that God, through Jesu Christ has entrusted to him.